D Ad The Copy Book Dad and the Copybook A Fathers Legacy in Ink The faded blue cover felt rough under my fingers the edges worn thin from years of use It was a simple copybook the kind youd find in any school supply store but to me it was a portal to a past I had only glimpsed in faded photographs Inside nestled amongst the neat rows of cursive script was a legacy penned in ink a testament to my fathers love patience and unwavering belief in me My father a man of few words was a master of the written word He carried a notebook everywhere filling its pages with notes lists and poems that spoke of his quiet observations and deep reflections He taught me to write before I even started school his hand guiding mine as I formed wobbly letters on the lined paper The copybook a gift from my father became our unspoken communication It held more than just my homework assignments it was a canvas for him to share his hopes and dreams for me his gentle corrections and his quiet pride His script a testament to a lifetime of practice was elegant and precise each stroke deliberate each word a reflection of his meticulous nature In the margins he would scribble encouraging words his handwriting transforming into a code only we understood Keep practicing hed write and Id feel a warm wave of his support a silent promise of his unwavering faith in my abilities He would correct my spelling errors not with harsh criticism but with a gentle reminder a nudge to strive for excellence One page tucked away near the back stood out It contained a poem he had penned for me his words an echo of his unspoken affection It spoke of a young boy his dreams soaring high his spirit unyielding The poem ended with a single sentence a line I would carry with me for a lifetime Believe in yourself my son for in your heart you hold the power to change the world As the years passed the copybook became a silent companion a reminder of my fathers presence even when he was gone His words etched in ink became a guidepost a beacon in times of uncertainty They reminded me of his unwavering love his faith in my potential and the importance of perseverance The copybook a simple notebook filled with handwritten notes became a powerful symbol of 2 a fathers love It taught me the value of hard work the importance of selfbelief and the enduring legacy of a fathers words In its pages I found not only a testament to my fathers character but a reflection of the man I aspired to be The ink may have faded with time but the words remained vibrant a testament to the enduring power of a fathers love The copybook a relic of a bygone era became a tangible reminder of his enduring
