the third edition of this internationally renowned and respected text is an ideal introduction to the subject of international finance theory is clearly explained and constantly related to the realities of the modern world economy the reader is taken through the theories and differing policies of the balance of payments exchange rates and the international monetary system extensive use is made of figures tables and graphs to illustrate the arguments in the text it is thoroughly updated and includes a new chapter on the asian financial crisis this work builds on existing studies of the international covenant on economic social and cultural rights by reviewing the challenges to implementation posed by the evolving global macroeconomic environment the inter disciplinary focus adopted highlights the limits to a purely legal approach to this instrument at both a theoretical and practical level issues such as the justiciability debate and the difficulties which the committee on economic social and cultural rights have experienced in applying the icescr to states parties economic policy choices are reviewed from a macroeconomic perspective and it is argued that only once the economic de contextualisation of this instrument has been addressed will the guarantees in the icescr be fully actualised in this vein it is proposed that reform of the existing supervisory architecture to incorporate economic expertise would be a more positive step forward for the icescr than the adoption of the proposed optional protocol this work is aimed at those working within the sphere of socio economic rights as well as human rights specialists interested in the implications of global economic integration for the international human rights system as well as the possibility of new paradigms in international human rights methodology
